The Canadian Railroad Accident. BELLEVILLE, June 22 .- The unfortuate train contained many ministers of the inglish Church en route home from the Toronto synod. About eleven miles below Belleville station the engine jumped the track, carrying death and fearful torture to scores of passengers. The forward car and baggage car, which remained on escoped into the smoking car and second-class passenger car, leaving them on the top of the engine exposed to the escaping steam from the boiler. Here the poor creatures were hopelessly penned for some time, breathing vapors of death and suffering all the agony of immersion into a boiling cauldron of super-heated water. An eye-witness says that immediately after the accident he went to the second-class car. It and the smoking car were telescoped, and on the locomotive, the steam from which issuing from the cars was so dense that he could see nothng. One after another of the scalded vicims were crowding out of the opening. Crow-bars were immediately put into requisition by the passengers from the firstclass cars, all of whom escaped injury, and openings were made. Many were found entangled, and were extricated with the utmost difficulty, timbers having to be broken. Five persons were found dead and were carried to the roadside, where the wounded lay for nearly three hours in the most fearful agony. The sight was one to baffle description. The terrible cries of the sufferers rent the ears of lookers-on, who made every possible effort to grant their requests for water. Two firstclass cars and a Pullman car were comparatively uninjured, and the passengers were transshipped and went east this forenoon. Sixty-five men and women were fearfully scalded and otherwise injured, six of whom died on the spot. Four more have died and others are dying every hour. Not more than one-third of the injured will live. The wounded and dying are lying stretched on mattrasses on the floor of the freight shed so much disfigured as to be

Grant's Boston Ratification Meeting Boston, Mass., June 23 .- The Grant Central Champaign Club held a ratifica-tion meeting. Alexander Rice presided. General Butler was seated on the rostrum Judge Hoar was the first person introducd, and lauded the candidates for their well-earned distinction in the lines of war and politics. In his allusion to Sumner he audience was disposed to hiss, but was checked by the speaker before his sentence was completed. His expression was only one of regret of the course his friend had taken, and that he would soon realize his Gen. Butler followed. He said this was

Now, as to the secret of this unjust confinement we think we know it. The two negroes in question had the oredit of uniformly voting the Democratic ticket, thus exercising their new rights as free citizens. As for their connection with Ku Klux, it is a base slander to charge that there was ever such an organization in the County They should be set at liberty. It is disgrace to the authorities having control of the matter to keep the said prisoners longer in confinement.

Since the above was put in type, a letter has been handed to us, from which we make the following extract. The letter is written from Newberry, and is from un-doubted authority, yet for reasons unne-cessary to be made known, we withhold the author's name. This letter fixes the blame, in part, at least, for the detention of the prisoners in question nearer home than we had anticipated. The public will read and judge for themselves whether such cruelty should be tolerated without the severest reprehension and punishment When the orders of a United States Judge and a United States Commissioner are set aside or ignored by a little tom-tit of a jailor, it would seem that our condition is "The Commissioner (Runkle) teils me

The events of the war reduced me nearly to poverty. At its close I gathered together the fragments of my ruined estate, hired a tew of my former slaves and commenced life anew. All went well with me until a month or six weeks ago, when I was suspected of being a Ku Klux, arrested by a United States Marshal, given a hasty trial, found guilty, sentenced, and two weeks ago was brought from Washington to this prison. My term is ten years." The editor of the Bee adds: "The man vowed upon his honor, and as he prayed that it might be in his death bed, that he was as innocent of the crime charged against him as I was myself. He knew nothing whatever of the Ku Klux. I asked him if he had a family. The mention of family seemed to paralyze him with grief. General Agents for Improved and Light Draft COTTON GIN.

Price, $4,00 Per Saw. THESE GINS were sold the past sea-son for the first time. They are made under Mr. Gullett's personal supervision, who never allows one to be sent from his works until it has been fully tested, and made to gin perfectly in every respect. This mode of testing is very important to the purchaser, as he does not run the risk of receiving and ally from the Steel Brush Gin formerly sold by us, inasmuch as the Steel Brush has three brushes, while the new Gin has has three brushes, while the new distance but one.

We guarantee every Gin to be of very light draft, to thoroughly clean the seed, and make a superior sample. Besides, it is simple in its construction, easily adjusted and gins very fast.

We respectfully refer to all those who have used the Improved Gin the past

Planters wishing Gins will consult their own interests, by either writing to us for our Gircular with Certificates, or calling at our office and examining for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.
